

Introduction

SIX3RO™ provides the first decentralized, quantum-resilient platform for secure enterprise information exchange, solving the architectural failures and mitigating the quantum risks that no incumbent can.

The Time is Now

- Recent MOVEit & SharePoint breaches prove centralized systems are collapsing.
- Quantum computing will break today's encryption by 2029 according to the most recent Google announcement.
- The internet cannot be retrofitted in time; protocol lag is 10+ years.
- These conditions drive demand for SIX3RO's solution and cannot be avoided; they are happening now and will force rapid action.

Q-Day is coming. Urgency is inevitable.

PortalSIX™: The Solution

- Decentralized - eliminates single points of failure and insider threats.
- On-demand encrypted enclaves - no intermediaries; protocol agnostic, no metadata leakage.
- Quantum-resilient and crypto-agile - safe pre-Q-Day and post-Q-Day.
- Drop-in adoption - no hardware, no disruption, no retraining.

Why We Win

- ➔ Only platform addressing the metaproblem of architecture + credential leakage + cryptography + protocol gaps.
- ➔ Patent filings + pilot deployments are underway.
- ➔ Standards inertia creates a moat; we work today, others will take years.

Opportunity

Traction

- Paying pilots in market now.
- Cross-industry adoption: enterprise, non-profit, NGO, Real Estate, and Healthcare.
- Pipeline demonstrates immediate market readiness.

Addressable Market

A $185B+ market today, $400B+ by 2030, for secure information exchange, growing 17% CAGR, with quantum-driven replacement cycles accelerating adoption.
